WORKSHOP

New Approaches to Research on Everyday Life during World War II

Organizers:
The Herder Institute for Historical Research on East Central Europe
German Historical Institute Warsaw
in cooperation with German Culture Forum for Central and Eastern Europe and the Foundation House Upper Silesia

27-28 September 2019

Venue:
The Centre for Historical Research of the Polish Academy of Sciences in Berlin
Majakowskiring 47, 13156 Berlin

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 27

17.00-17.30 Welcome

17.30-18.15 Keynote
Tatjana Tönsmeyer
„Alles schon bekannt? Der Zweite Weltkrieg und die historische Forschung: Neue Ansätze und Perspektiven“ (German/Polish)

19.30 Dinner

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 28

9.30-11.00 LECTURE
Jerzy Kochanowski

11.00-11.30 Coffee Break

11.30-14.00 GROUP WORK I
Introduction to the History of Everyday Life

RESEARCH PROJECTS I

Justyna Majewska
Toward the Future: Visions of the Jewish Life from the Warsaw ghetto
Maria Ferenc Piotrowska
Sources and Meanings of Information in Warsaw ghetto

14.00-15.00  Lunch

15.00-17.00  GROUP WORK II
Supply and Shortages

RESEARCH PROJECTS II
Mantas Šikšnianas
Everyday Life in Nazi Occupied Lithuania 1941-1944
Judith Voecker
Crime and Criminal Prosecution as a Part of Everyday Life in ‘Jewish ghettos’

17.30-19.00  GROUP WORK III
Gendered Approaches

RESEARCH PROJECTS III
Jacub Gałęziowski
Entangled Biographies of Children Born of War in Poland after 1945
Martin Borkowski-Saruhan
Fun under German Occupation? Sports, Violence, and Everyday Life in East Upper Silesia during World War II
Janina Wurbs
Overheard? Sounds and Soundscapes in NS-Ghettos and Concentration Camps

19.00  Dinner